Senator Barefoot

moves to amend the bill on page 73, lines 21-22,

by inserting between those lines the following:

"ESTABLISH LEGISLATIVE SCHOOL FOR LEADERSHIP AND PUBLIC SERVICE/GOVERNOR'S SCHOOL FUNDS

SECTION 10.16.(a) The General Assembly finds that it is important to recognize students who have talent and potential as leaders and to provide opportunities and training for students to develop and explore their leadership skills. The General Assembly further finds it is important to prepare students who display leadership skills to lead in responsible, positive ways and to provide a variety of settings for students to practice and strengthen leadership talents. The General Assembly also recognizes that the community involvement and public services performed by students seeking to fulfill their leadership potential provides an invaluable benefit to the State and its citizens.

SECTION 10.16.(b) The Legislative School for Leadership and Public Service is established within The University of North Carolina General Administration. The School shall be a summer residential program for academically gifted high school students that offers a course of study on leadership development and public service that is academically excellent and that also provides an outstanding and unique educational experience.

The Board of Governors shall determine which constituent institution shall be the site and sponsor of the program and, in consultation and collaboration with the constituent institution shall design and implement an application and nomination process for students interested in attending the program and the criteria and process to be used to determine admissions to the program. The curriculum for the program shall be designed by the constituent institution based on criteria established by the Board of Governors and is subject to the approval of the Board of Governors.

The constituent institution shall administer the Legislative School for Leadership and Public Service in consultation and collaboration with The University of North Carolina Office of General Administration.

SECTION 10.16.(c) G.S. 116-11 is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:
"(13b.) The Board of Governors may authorize the constituent institution selected by the Board as the site and sponsor for the Legislative School for Leadership and Public Service to implement a tuition charge for students attending the School to cover the costs of the School."
